WOMEN WHO ARE ALWAYS TIRED

May Find Help in This Letter.

Swan Creek, Mich.—"I cannot speak too highly of your medicine. When overworked I get run down and my appetite is poor and I have that weak, languid, always tired feeling. I get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it builds me up, gives me strength, and restores me to perfect health again. It is truly a great blessing to women, and I cannot speak too highly of it. I take pleasure in recommending it to others."—Mrs. ANNIE CAMERON, R.F.D., No. 1, Swan Creek, Michigan.

Hebron, Me.—"Before taking your remedies I was all run down, discouraged and had female weakness. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and used the Sanative Wash, and find today that I am an entirely new woman, ready and willing to do my household work now, where before taking your medicine it was a dread. I try to impress upon the minds of all ailing women I meet the benefits they can derive from your medicines."—Mrs. CHARLES ROWE, Kennebago, Maine.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

ELECTRA, NEW TYPE OF AMERICAN BEAUTY.

Miss Florence Cassassa.

Broadway's beauty hosts were dealt a crushing blow when the jury of American artists selected the statuette Miss Florence Cassassa, unknown to the art world and to the beauty studios, as the ideal type of the American girl and the winner in a national contest in which more than 300 girls were entered from nearly every state in the Union. Miss Cassassa is a Brooklyn, N. Y., miss, twenty years old, five feet seven and one half inches in height and weighs exactly 141 pounds. She is "as lovely as Venus and as imperial as Juno," qualifications set for in the competition. Miss Cassassa resides with her parents, her father being a retired merchant of wealth. She is a devotee of outdoor sports.

What adds to Miss Cassassa's triumph is the fact that she was represented only by a photograph, while a bevy of Broadway's widely acclaimed beauties were present in person to bid for Electra's crown.

Miss Cassassa will be the model for Electra, goddess of prosperity. She will be photographed in Grecian costume into more than 100,000,000 stamps, posters, bill boards, pamphlets and advertising matter to be spread broadcast over the country by the great electrical interests of America. The purpose of this campaign is to hit at hard times and to awaken a trust in American business—to make the word "prosperity" spell something real and lasting. The campaign will culminate in "Electrical Prosperity Week," Nov. 29 to Dec. 4, during which celebrations organized by the leading industries of America with investments of billions of dollars, will be held in every city and town in the land. It is this new message of optimism and courage that the classic countenance of Miss Cassassa as the divinity of the campaign will beam on 100,000,000 Americans.

TO HOLD CITY ELECTION AT OILTON

Oilton, Okla., July 5.—The election for the first officers of Oilton, is to be held on July 12 and the mailing for places is becoming interesting. Only a very small per cent of the citizens will be able to vote on this date as they have not lived in Creek county long enough to acquire a voting residence; neither can these new people hold the offices. The candidates must be selected from among old time Creek county people. Among those whose names will go on the ballot for the first three city commissioners will be Harry Anderson, restaurant; C. W. Fatty, ice and electric plant owner; Herman Dineus, merchant, and James Mansfield, merchant. The officers are elected for a two year term. The election is to be entirely non-partisan.
